About Us

The Salvation Army is an international Christian organization that began its work in Canada in 1882. Outside of the government, we are the largest direct-provider of social services in the country. Our programs and services feed, clothe and shelter vulnerable people every day, while helping others escape violence and addiction. Working in close to 60 communities in British Columbia, 400 communities across Canada and 131 countries around the world – we give people hope today ... and every day.

The Event

Welcome to the biggest party in town... The Salvation Army's 20th Annual Hope in the City Celebration!

We are excited to share with you just how big a celebration this is going to be; in fact, you won't want to miss it.

You're invited to partner with us and our friends at Global BC on Saturday, December 4th – watch as the province tunes in to our one-hour event commemorating our 20th Annual Hope in the City Celebration. We have an exciting line up ready with some amazing stories, special guests, not to mention some big announcements and a few surprises. All led of course by our wonderful long-time host, Dr. Peter Legge, whose got some surprises of his own this year. Did we mention this is on Global BC and we want you to be a part of it?

Our partnership with Global BC this year means a HUGE provincial reach and new opportunities for YOU! Imagine over half a million live viewers all tuning in to see the impact your brand and partnership has made within The Salvation Army and those we serve. Not to mention the exposure of 10 days pre-promotion by Global BC and 980 CKNW.

This year again things look a bit different than our last 19 years, but even in these precarious times we are thrilled to offer you some new opportunities to continue Giving Hope Today... and Every Day.

In partnership with Global BC

SPECIAL HOST

Neetu Garcha

REPORTER/ANCHOR

Neetu is a multimedia journalist based in Metro Vancouver. When she's not reporting for television, radio or online, Neetu is at the news desk anchoring the Global News Hour at 6 on the weekends on Global BC.

Neetu has covered everything from crime and politics to breaking news and international crises. She is drawn towards stories about social justice and equality and embraces the opportunity the job presents to hold powerful people to account.

Neetu is motivated by the support and guidance she received throughout her life from her late grandmother, who she calls Bibi, and by the sacrifices her parents made immigrating to Canada to raise a family and the opportunities this has given her. When Neetu's not working she's likely spending time with her family and friends, exercising, travelling or reading a good book. Her not-so-guilty pleasure is definitely chocolate.
